

Minister's Musings

SUMMERTIME, AND THE LIVING IS EASY

During the summer, life slows down (but only a little bit!) around Jubilee United Church. Worship is happening at 10:00 am, coffee time after church is water, juice and cookies (rather than all of the fabulous things that the teams bring throughout the year), there are fewer meetings, and there seems to be some more time to connect in different ways. I (Rev. Graham) will be on holidays from August 1 - 14, and August 21 - September 5, whereas Kathy will be taking Mondays off. The Ministry Personnel Committee, Administration Working Group and Transitional Council are working on the new custodian Job Description, and we hope to have a new custodian in place by mid-August.

Minister(')s(') Musings - A Retrospective

Rev. Jay and I began Ministers' Musings in the Spring of 2016 in order to help clear up some of the mis-information that was being shared within the congregation(s). There have now been 7 editions, and it appears that some mis-information is still being shared. The following are the items which were covered in each edition of Musings - if you would like to review the information that was shared at that time, you may ask for a copy from the office, or, if you're able, look it up on the website <<www.jubilee-uc.ca/documents>>
